Church Gossip

Mildred, the church gossip and self-appointed arbiter of the church's morals, kept her nose in the other members' private lives. Church members were unappreciative of her activities, but feared her enough to maintain their silence. She made a mistake, however, when she accused George, a new member, of being an alcoholic after she saw his pick-up truck parked in front of the town's only bar one afternoon. She commented to George and others that everyone seeing it there would know what he was doing. George, a man of few words, stared at her for a moment and just walked away. He didn't explain, defend, or deny; he said nothing. Later that evening, George quietly parked his ute out the front of Mildred's house ... and left it there all night!

12th July, 2015

This week we are resuming our series "The Story". What a fantastic series it has been so far. I'm very excited to resume the series at this point. So far we have read of Adam and Eve, Abraham, Joseph, Moses, Joshua, Ruth, King David and King Solomon, and that's just to name the main characters.

As we resume the series today, we come to chapter 14, A Kingdom Torn in Two, and we begin to see the great division and fall of Israel. We come to some Kings and prophets who aren't so well known to everybody. We begin to look at names like Jeroboam, Jeroboam, Abijah, Hosea, Amos, Esther and Nehemiah. We go from looking at stories we hear about just about every year to some we may not have heard for a long time. I'm excited for what we will learn as we continue to look at these upcoming Chapters as a whole church. The kids groups, the youth groups, the adult small groups, all generations learning and reflecting and growing in God's word together.

I'm excited as we continue through the Old Testament and continue to see Jesus present again and again, seeing him so present far before the Gospels

Mission Update

Flight for One Saves Three

While out hunting in Balimo, a man accidentally speared his friend in the back. With no doctor in Balimo, Gawak needed an urgent medivac to Kiunga Hospital. But blood and other fluids had collected in his chest cavity. Once at high altitude, he would barely be able to breathe. Gawak needed his lung drained, but the only doctor available was away visiting outstations. MAF pilot Markus Bischoff re-routed his flight to pick up Dr Sharon as well as her patient Dorothy, who was suffering from a tubal pregnancy about to burst.

As it turned out, Dr Sharon had to perform emergency surgery on Dorothy the next day, just as the fallopian tube burst. If Markus had not picked her up along the way, Dorothy would not have survived.

As the airstrip in Balimo was closed, Gawak had to travel up-river by boat to the nearest airstrip. Abilo, who had suffered a knife stab wound and also needed urgent treatment, travelled with him.

Finally, Dr Sharon was able to drain Gawak's lung under the dilapidated roof of the open air terminal, and all three patients were transferred to Kiunga Hospital.

The medivac for Gawak ended up transforming three lives at once! That's how just one medivac could save countless lives, just like Gawak's medivac flight ended up saving three people!

Tax deductible donations to MAF for medivac may be made though
