A bishop turned to his congregation to say, "Peace be with you" only to find that the sound system was not working. "There's something wrong with the microphone", he announced, and the congregation, seeing his lips move but not hearing him, dutifully replied, "and also with you."

A little girl became restless as the preacher's sermon dragged on and on. Finally she leaned over to her mother and whispered, "Mummy, if we give him money now, will he let us go?"

After attending a prayer meeting where everyone prayed very loudly, a small child remarked, "If they lived nearer to God, they wouldn't have to pray so loudly."

A life spent making mistakes is not only most honourable but more useful than a life spent doing nothing.

26th June, 2016

I have been coaching basketball on and off for many years. I don't think I am a wonderful coach and many times I feel completely out of my depth, but I do really enjoy coaching. Currently I am coaching the Demons under 14 girl's team. They are a wonderful group of girls and we are sitting in second place with just the one loss so far this season.

There is a mix of skill levels amongst the girls, but one girl in particular is absolutely terrible at basketball. I know that probably sounds horrible of me to say, but it simply is the truth. She is one of the worst basketball players I have ever coached, but keep on encouraging her and giving her the opportunity to have a lot of fun playing each week.

A couple of weeks ago after our game this particular girl's Dad came up to me and shook me firmly by the hand, saying, "Thank you so much for what you are doing for the girls. You are doing a fantastic job!" I walked away thinking to myself, "That is why I coach basketball." As a coach I seek to encourage every single player, and try to bring the best out of each of them, and hopefully that Dad's response was an indication that I am doing that.

JAMES chapter 2 tells us, "My brothers and sisters, believers in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ must not show favouritism. Suppose a man comes into your meeting wearing a gold ring and fine clothes, and a poor man in filthy old clothes also comes in. If you show special attention to the man wearing fine clothes and say, 'Here's a good seat for you,' but say to the poor man, 'You stand there' or 'Sit on the floor by my feet,' have you not discriminated among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts?"

In life seek to encourage and lift all people. Help all people strive to be the best that they can. Look at all people with the eyes of Jesus and see the immense value and worth that they all have.

WHO IS YOUR NEIGHBOUR?

Galatians 6: 6-10

Anyone who receives instruction in the word must share all good things with his instructor. Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. The one who sows to please his sinful nature, from that nature will reap destruction; the one who sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers.
