Café

While on a long car journey, a couple stopped at a roadside restaurant for lunch. The woman unfortunately left her sunglasses on the table, but didn't miss them until they were back on the motorway. By then they had to travel to the next junction before they could turn around.

The man fussed and complained all the way back to the restaurant.

When they finally arrived, as the woman got out of the car to find her sunglasses, the man said, "While you're in there, you may as well get my hat too."

An elderly woman died recently. Having never married, she requested that her coffin should be carried by women not by men. In her instructions for her funeral, she wrote, "They wouldn't take me out while I was alive, so I certainly don't want them to take me out when I'm dead!"

In My Neighbour's Eyes

by Robert Hedrick

If I were my neighbour, what type of neighbour would I see in me,
One that I hardly knew at all or one who stopped by regularly.
When a neighbour's needed, is this the one on whom I could call,
Or would he just turn his back, not acknowledging my call at all.

If I were injured or became ill and was unable to mow my grass,
Would I see this neighbour out there mowing, even before I ask.
Then, later, would he come back by, seeking to do another chore,
Or just become scarce until I was well and not see him anymore.

Would I see him as a loving husband, a good helpmate to his wife,
Or someone who is selfish and lazy, with signs of anger and strife.
Would I see in him a caring father, a devoted type of family man,
One who provides quite well for them, giving the best that he can.

Seeing myself in my neighbour's eyes, am I pleased in all that I see,
Or would I be totally shocked, hanging my head rather shamefully.
When I'm outside, as things go wrong and my temper begins to soar,
I'll try to remember the world is watching and it all begins next door.

Welcome to church today. If you are a visitor we offer you a special welcome. We hope you enjoy worshipping with us. Please stay for a cup of tea or coffee in the hall following the morning service.

BEARING FRUIT

Romans 13: 8-10

Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for he who loves his fellowman has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "Do not commit adultery," "Do not murder," "Do not steal," "Do not covet," and whatever other commandment there may be, are summed up in this one rule: "Love your neighbour as yourself." Love does no harm to its neighbour. Therefore love is the fulfilment of the law.

Galatians 5: 13-14

You, my brothers, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the sinful nature; rather, serve one another in love. The entire law is summed up in a single command: "Love your neighbour as yourself."

ROSTERS

You can collect your new rosters from the foyer table this morning.

NEEDED are—9.00 am communion servers
9.00 am morning tea preparers
Are you able to give some time to assist please?
Put your name on the list in the foyer.

Absences please:

There is a sheet on the foyer door where you can list your absences for the next roster—October, November, December. By listing your absences here we can ensure that you are not rostered on for those weeks.

SAMARITAN'S PURSE CHRISTMAS BOXES

The boxes are now available to purchase for 50c to start filling for children for Christmas. Brochures are now available too. If you find you can't manage to fill a box this year, why not donate money for someone else to fill one or pay for someone's postage for their box. Lots of ways to be involved. There will be a carton for people to place items for a box if you would like to contribute that way. Please see Robyn for further information.
