The Images of Mother

4 years of age - My Mummy can do anything!
 8 years of age - My Mum knows a lot! A whole lot!
 12 years of age - My Mother doesn't know anything!
 14 years of age - My Mother? She wouldn't have a clue.
 16 years of age - Mother? She's so five minutes ago.
 18 years of age - That old woman? She's way out of date!
 25 years of age - Well, she might know a little bit about it.
 35 years of age - Before we decide, let's get Mum's opinion.
 45 years of age - Wonder what Mum would have thought about it?
 65 years of age - Wish I could talk it over with Mum.

Black Night

Come dressed in black!

In a mother's womb were two babies. One asked the other, "Do you believe in life after delivery?" The other replied, "Why, of course. There has to be something after delivery. Maybe we are here to prepare ourselves for what we will be later." Nonsense," said the other. "There is no life after delivery. What would that life be?" "I don't know, but there will be more light than here. Maybe we will walk with our legs and eat from our mouths?"

The other said, "That is absurd! Walking is impossible. And eat with our mouths? Ridiculous. The umbilical cord supplies nutrition. Life after delivery is to be excluded. The umbilical cord is too short."

"I think there is something and maybe it's different than it is here," the other replied. "No one has ever come back from there. Delivery is the end of life, and in the after-delivery it is nothing but darkness and anxiety, and it takes us nowhere."

"Well, I don't know," said the other, "but certainly, we will see mother and she will take care of us." "Mother? You believe in mother? Where is she now?" "She is all around us. It is in her that we live. Without her there would not be this world." "I don't see her, so it's only logical that she doesn't exist."

To which the other replied, "Sometimes when you're in silence you can hear her, you can perceive her. I believe there is a reality after delivery and we are here to prepare ourselves for that delivery."

New Comers' Lunch Sunday, 26th May

If you have been coming as a regular attender to this church during the past twelve months, then this lunch is for you.

Please collect an invitation from the foyer table today and return the cut-off slip by Sunday, 19th May for catering purposes.
