PRAYER REQUEST

Bobby's parents tried their best to keep him from acting up during the morning worship hour, but they were losing the battle. Finally, the father picked up the little fellow and walked sternly up the aisle to apply a little discipline. Just before reaching the foyer, little Bobby called loudly to the congregation, "Pray for me! Pray for me!"

Offering Time

Freddie, in church for the first time, watched as the ushers passed the offering plates. When they neared the pew where he sat, the boy piped up, "Don't pay for me Daddy, I'm under five."

14th July, 2013

Today is our Super Sunday Service. Over the last two weeks we have been running our Adventure Club School Holiday Program. We've run with the theme of Super Heroes using the theme in all our activities. Over the four days we ran, we've had 45 different kids attending with around 30 on each day. Each day we've done a variety of things including crafts, stories, games songs and loads more. Today we've invited all the families along whose kids attended the holidays' program, and a great welcome to you if you're one of them. Our hope is that you get a glimpse of some of the great fun we've had and lessons we've learnt over the four days.

Each day we've talked about a power that Jesus had, his power to provide, his power over the weather, his power over life and death and his power to change lives. This morning at our Super Sunday Service we are going to focus on some of these great powers we know Jesus had.

I used to love Super Heroes as a kid and still love the new Super Hero movies. I was always a huge Batman fan, he was by far the coolest Super Hero. I had Batman action figures, movies and video games. I thought he was the greatest Super Hero of all. When we look at our real life though I know that Jesus was the ultimate Super Hero. He was the first and greatest Super Hero. He fought for good and battled against evil. This morning we are going to talk about exactly why he is the greatest Super Hero of all and focus on his greatest power which we talked about in the memory verse the kids all had.

Acts 4:12 – Only Jesus has the power to save, his name is greater than any name in all the world.

Mark 8: 27-30

Jesus and his disciples went on to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked them, “Who do people say I am?” They replied, “Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets.”

But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?”

Peter answered, “You are the Christ.”

Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about him.

Mission Update

Taking it to the Streets

With Jesus Christ Superstar opening in Sydney on 7 June, arriving audiences have been spruiked by the Bible Society to take a pre-show look at the ‘original script’ ...as found in the New Testament Gospels. In a ‘covert operation’, people were offered themed and free copies of The Gospel of Matthew, t-shirts and badges with slogans like ‘Jesus: The Original Superstar.’

Bible Society volunteers engaged with people going to the show at the Sydney Entertainment Centre, pointing out light-heartedly that ‘the (un)official program is even better than the musical.’ Many people appreciated the humour. While some productions on religious themes invite violent opposition and conflict between religious groups and theatre-goers, the Bible Society took a good-humoured approach.

“We always love it when Jesus Christ is getting air-play, whatever the vehicle,” says Bible Society CEO, Dr Greg Clarke. “We just want people to have a chance to enjoy the original story in all of its glory and see what they make of it.”

Despite the Bible being the best-selling book of all time, the vast majority of Australians are not regular readers of the Bible, with even three out of four practicing Christians being irregular readers of the Bible.

The Bible Society in Australia is the nation’s oldest continuous organisation, founded a month before the first bank by Governor Macquarie.
